

THE MONDAY

REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

June 11, 1984
Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: Campus Newspaper
File: EG 1-12-5
Date: 9-28-95

DAY RECEIVES VIP TREATMENT BY LEVI STRAUSS COMPANY

Former Shelton student Tammy Day will be the guest of the Levi Strauss Company at their world headquarters in San Francisco, California the last of August. While there Ms. Day will receive a complete wardrobe of Levi products, a tour of the headquarters and city and a meeting with the president of the company.

Ms. Day was injured in an accident last summer and suffered serious injuries including fifty-two fractures of her left pelvis. While in the hospital, her doctors told her that her Levi jeans kept the fractures from fragmenting and aided in saving her life. Her aunt, Shelton secretary Sandra Day, wrote the Levi Strauss company telling about the incident. Levi's president, Mr. Robert Grohman, wrote back he wanted to do something special for Tammy. According to Levi spokesman Barbara Ricksham, Tammy's recovery is a miracle and Levi Strauss is delighted to be a part of her miracle.

SHELTON ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR HONORING SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Shelton State Community College will honor its 1983-84 scholarship recipients at a scheduled reception at the college on Sunday, July 22, at 3 p.m. in the library of the Junior College Division. Students, advisors, and parents will be invited to attend. Any faculty member or advisor of a student organization who has awarded a scholarship to the college for the 1983-84 school year should contact Dr. Humphrey Lee, dean of students at the college.

TWO SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED BY SSAA

Shelton State Alumni Association has awarded two academic scholarships to the Junior College Division for the 1984-85 school year. Recipients of the scholarships are Sharon Phyllis Cook and Joey Dale Elam. Funds for the scholarships were derived from various fund-raising events including the recent production of "Carmen" presented by Shelton's music department.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The Alabama State Fire College and Technical Assistance Program has been recognized by the International Fire Service Training Association as one of the top 20 distributors in the nation for their fire training manuals. The award was based on their sales for the 1982-83 year.

The Fire Fighter I Basic School will be held at the Fire College on June 25-29.

COMPUTERS + KIDS = FUN

"Computers + Kids = Fun," a summer workshop designed for students in grades 5-12 will be sponsored by Math Aid and Shelton State Community College. The workshop will be held on Tuesday and Thursday, 3-4 p.m., beginning on June 19 and continuing through July 12, 1984. The cost is $55 per student and classes will be held at the Junior College Division, 202 Skyland Blvd.

According to Guesna Dohrman, chairman of the math division of the college, the workshop is designed to offer students the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of BASIC computer programming. Different levels of individualized instruction will be offered. The students will use Apple II-e computers for instruction on topics such as Let, Print, If, Then, For/Next, Arrays, String Variables, Library Functions, Graphics, Music.

The course will be taught by Robbyn Gourdouze. For information or to register contact Ms. Dohrman or Camille Cochran at 759-1541 or 759-2968.

SHELTON TO SPONSOR THREE BUILDING BETTER BOARDS WORKSHOPS THIS SUMMER

Three workshops for board members of non-profit organizations will be sponsored by Shelton State this summer as part of the college's Building Better Boards for Community Organizations program. The first two workshops are generic in nature and are designed to be of use to all members of non-profit organizations. These two workshops are "Fund-Raising, Special Events, and Public/Private Partnerships for non-Profits" led by Buckner Winfield of Emory University and "Stress and Time Management" which will be given by Shelton instructors Dr. Bruce Bizzoco and Dr. Randall Jarrell. The third workshop scheduled for this summer is "I Am A Member of the Board," scheduled for Thursday, August 2, from 6-9 p.m. It will be a cooperative workshop which will be given by Shelton dean of instruction Dr. Arthur Howington and Johnnie Aycock, executive director of the Chamber of Commerce.

The first workshop, "Fund-Raising, Special Events, and Public Private Partnerships for Non-Profits" will be Wednesday, June 20, from 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. in room 87. Workshop cost is $35 and space is limited.

The second workshop, "Stress and Time Management" will be Wednesday, July 11, from 6-9 p.m. in room 87. The cost is $12. This workshop is a sneak preview of one of a series of seminars which will be offered this fall. Some of the subject areas covered in the workshop will be: handling the stress of operating an agency or business; can stress really cause physical pain, discovering coping skills used by professionals; learn how to successfully manage your time and how to apply the planning process to your business or organization, and acquiring the benefits which come from effective scheduling.

For more information on the workshops, contact the project director Lucy Kubiszyn at the Junior College Division.